

Things that bring peace

We receive peace from many places. Sometimes our toys or pets can bring us peace. God provides peace through our family, scriptures or songs of praise. Write specific things that bring you peace from things and from God, like your favorite scripture or the name of your favorite song.

Things That Give me Peace

From People...

From God...