

Hopscotch game cards

February PreK week 3

Sam fell off his bike while riding fast downhill. His friend was close by and started laughing at how hard he fell.
Was love shown?

Penny loves watching TV. Her favorite show is on right now but her family is ready to have family worship. She decides to record her show for later and join her family for worship.
Was love shown?

Haily has a friend who comes to school with holes in her shoes and clothes. Haily tells her mom and they buy new clothes at the store. The next day Haily leaves the bag of clothes in her friend's cubby with a note "Thinking of you!".
Was love shown?

Tara's church group is going to the nursing home after church today. Cara is tired and wants to go home to eat. While at the nursing home Cara sits in the corner and sulks about being hungry and tired.
Was love shown?

On their way into a store, Toya and her mom see a lady sitting outside who looks like she hasn't been eating. They go home and pack some of their dinner in a container and bring it back to the lady sitting outside.
Was love shown?

John has a new teammate on his baseball team. He is not the greatest hitter and he is having a hard time fitting in with the other boys. John invites him over to play catch at his house after school and him hang out with some of their teammates.
Was love shown?

Fran is nervous to start at a new school this year.

She is anxious about making new friends and meeting new teachers. She reads a few verses from her bible about fear and prays for God to help her through the first few days of school.

Was love shown?

Elon has a soccer game the same day and time as church. He doesn't want to miss the big game. It's a big decision. He considers praying to God for an answer but is afraid God won't have the answer he wants to hear. He chooses to do what he thinks is best.

Was love shown?

Carl wakes up each morning and finds a place in his room to read the Bible and pray to God.

Throughout the day he enjoys whispering prayers, thanking God for his protection and asking for help at school.

Was love shown?

Pam sees a girl at school quietly crying to herself. She doesn't know the girl but decides to go over and ask if she's ok. The girl doesn't really answer. Pam thinks about what to do and decides to just sit next to the girl in case she wants to talk.

Was love shown?