

Do the Right Thing- Scenarios

Read each scenario and tell if you would do the right thing and how you would do it. If you get stuck ask a parent to help you decide the correct way to handle the situation.

A friend comes to your house and pressures you to watch a movie you know your parents said you can not watch. You know the right thing to do is obey your parents.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

You and your friend find a wallet on the ground near your house. There is a $100 in the wallet and a driver's license. Your friend says you should keep it but you know the right thing to do is return it to the owner.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

A girl in your class sends a note around class that is mean towards another classmate. Everyone passes the note around, then it comes to you. You know the right thing to do is not continue to pass the note around and stand up for the student being teased.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

Your classmate says they don't have time for church because they have better things to do on Sabbath. They try to convince you that going to church and listening to God is not that important. You know the right thing to do is stand up for what you believe.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

Your class is having a fundraiser. Your aunt sends you $50 towards the fundraiser but gives you the money. Your friend suggests you just keep the money to buy the game you've been waiting to get. You know the right thing to do is turn the money into the school.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

Your mom baked cookies yesterday so the cookie jar is full. If you take a cookie from the cookie jar no one will know. The rule in your home is you have to ask permission before having a snack. You know the right thing to do it ask your parents if you can have a cookie.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

Your teacher asks you to complete a science project that is very challenging. You are not sure you will be able to complete the assignment. You really want to give up and not spend your most of your weekend working on it. You know the right thing to do is try your best.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

You have a classmate that doesn't wear a coat to school even though its very cold outside and they look like they are freezing. You just got a new jacket even though your other jacket still fits. You know the right thing to do is ask your classmate if they want or need your new jacket.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

You teacher needs someone to volunteer to give a presentation at the upcoming school program. No one in class wants to volunteer. You know the right thing to do is volunteer to give the presentation.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

You see a classmate steal the answers for the upcoming quiz from the teacher's desk. During the quiz they get your attention and try to share the answers with you. You studied but you are not sure you know all the right answers. You know the right thing to do is look away and not cheat.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

You hear a friend making fun of another kid because of their race or gender. They are saying false things about the person to get other kids to dislike them as well. You know the right thing to do is tell everyone the truth about the kid's character.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?

At the lunch table several kids say they don't believe Jesus is real. They say the Bible is just a made up story people tell. They ask you if you agree with them. You know the right thing to do is share that you do believe Jesus is real and why you know it's true.

Would you have courage to do the right thing?