

A student is caught stealing pencils from his classmate. He admits to doing it several times.

Would you show mercy or punishment?

Sammie lied to her brother about breaking his new Lego creation.

Would you show mercy or punishment?

Jason is really good at playing basketball. The coach finds out he has been bullying other kids at school and needs to be suspended from several games.

Would you show mercy or punishment?

John was caught littering in the city park several different times.

Would you show mercy or punishment?

Frank was caught on tape smashing the car windows of a neighbor.

Would you show mercy or punishment?

Randal spread lies about his friend Carl, to several other classmates who then stopped being friends with Carl.

Would you show mercy or punishment?